Thoughtfully designed with women in mind.

Introducing a discreet hydrophilic catheter design that is truly inspired.

Infyna Chic™
Intermittent Catheter

Continence Care

The Infyna Chic Hydrophilic Intermittent Catheter

The Infyna Chic Hydrophilic Intermittent Catheter was designed with input from clinicians to help provide a high level of discretion for women who use catheters. After use, place the catheter back inside the case and close the cap to dispose when it is convenient. Modern, feminine, discreet.

What our users love

Our discreet, aesthetically pleasing design offers a sense of normality, without constant reminders of medical issues. The Infyna Chic catheter can be opened and closed with one hand, with the ability to carry, reseal and dispose of without leaks - confidently and hygienically.
